

Essential Job Functions:

- Utilizes superior understanding of HTML and CSS as well as semantic markup and web standards to act as a team contributor
- Works with technical leads and user experience architects to understand and translate wireframes and architectural requirements
- Acts as a team member and collaborator to ensure the best possible solution for the client
- Interacts with clients as needed to explain, translate and communicate technical issues and clarifications

Required Skills

- Demonstrable expertise in standards-compliant semantic HTML, JS, jQuery, PHP, MySQL, Droople, basic Apache skills
- Demonstrable skills in standards-compliant development techniques.
- Experience with Javascript and the Document Object Model (DOM).
- Experience with working with complex Photoshop documents, and the ability to slice out the images needed to create site.
- Experience with both Dreamweaver and text editors
- Experience with cross-browser HTML and CSS, and an understanding of browser-specific quirks and solutions.
- Experience with documenting your work.
- Clear and proactive communication skills.
- The ability to work with minimal supervision, and not be afraid to ask questions.
- Basic understanding of programming concepts and database interaction.
- The desire to learn more and improve your skills.

Preferred Skills

- Experience with Dimensions
- Experience on large, enterprise-level projects.
- Experience with Ruby on Rails, ColdFusion, Java, .NET and/or Perl.
- Experience with content management systems.
- Experience with mobile website development.
- Experience with source control systems such as SVN.
- Google Search Appliance customization